How you will be assessed

Students will be assessed in each of their modules across the two years of study. These will be in the form of long essays in which the marks vary from 30-40 and some shorter essays where the marks range from 8-16. These will be marked against the exam board mark scheme and feedback will be given via medal and mission.

The modules will be either language or literature so you will be assessed on different GCSEs over the course of the two years.
